

THE SOUTHERN BAPTIST THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

NEW TESTAMENT INTERPRETATION

A. T. ROBERTSON

NORTON HALL, ROOM 22

May 19, 1931.

My dear Dr. Goodspeed: I have only this morning, after my recovery from the influenza,
read your useful and kindly

"Stranger for Jobs".

I get frequent inquiries about some of that stuff, and am glad to be able to tell of your careful presentation of the facts.

Only this morning I have a letter from California (recently from New Zealand) about the Coccard N. J.; a Prostitute propaganda which is deceiving many innocent people.

I denounced it on occasion.
I wish you would take up one chapter (or one N. J. book)
in it and expose its fallacies and hallucinations.
It is doing much more harm than the "Strange Jobs".

I have marked in the circular
the "New Short Grammar" (Richard R. Smith, Inc.) which you may stumble on.

Cordially yours,

A. T. Robinson.
